

For Immediate Release:

For Event Details & To RSVP:
morgan@danielravenelsir.com

Luxury Real Estate Firm Daniel Ravenel Sotheby's International Realty Partners with Green Building Pioneer Developer Dyal Compass to Host a Seminar on Sustainability

February 1, 2016 (Charleston SC) A Luxury Real Estate firm announces an upcoming event to promote Sustainable Practices in Real Estate, Business, and Public Policy. The event will take place February 11 at the Harbor Club on Prioleau Street from 5:30 to 7:30. Free and open to the public (RSVP required), the event will feature presentations from leading Sustainability spokespeople including Hamilton Davis, Energy Program Director for the Coastal Conservation League; Stuart Williams, Director at Be Earth Foundation- A United Nations IGO; and Craig Gentilin of Royal Indigo Construction, the builders of Indigo Park on Kiawah.

Sponsored by Indigo Park, a premiere new community of LEED Certified homes on Kiawah Island, the event will focus on Green Building Practices and the idea of "Making a Profit while Making a Difference". Indigo Park is the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Certified Community in a US Resort, and is made up of 16 homes ranging in size from 3-5 bedrooms. Homes offer marsh views and pools, and eco-friendly features such as geo-thermal heating and cooling, heat-reflective roofing, and lifetime guaranteed maintenance-free Nu-cedar siding.

"As more consumers understand and appreciate the philosophy of environmentally sensitive building, communities will benefit from projects like Indigo Park where patience and commitment to sustainable, high quality design principles are paramount, says Candace Dyal, president of Dyal Compass LLC. "This is a trend that has spread across America and Europe. We are very excited to be gaining momentum for this movement in the communities of Kiawah and Charleston."

The event will feature several speakers and a question and answer panel discussion, and will provide light refreshments and give aways. Stuart Williams, director of Be Earth Foundation, presents regularly to the UN, and is also the Social and Environmental Entrepreneur in Residence at the College of Charleston. Williams has a mission of "Making a Profit while Making a Difference" and works to impact policy and public consciousness as it relates to Sustainability.

Hamilton Davis has been working for the Coastal Conservation League since 2006 and currently serves as the Energy & Climate Director. The Energy & Climate Program promotes the implementation of comprehensive local, state, and federal energy policies related to renewable energy, energy efficiency, and climate change.

Key sponsor, Daniel Ravenel Sotheby's International Realty, has a strong presence on Kiawah Island, having represented the highest priced MLS listings to sell on Kiawah for the past three years in a row. (2013: listed and sold 109 Flyway Drive for $10.7M // 2014: Listed and sold 345 Surfsong for $5.8M // 2015: Listed 127 Halona Lane in Indigo Park which closed for $2.76M). Their marketing plan includes global exposure through an exclusive international marketing plan for all their listings.

ABOUT DANIEL RAVENEL SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY:

Daniel Ravenel Sotheby's International Realty has been serving the Lowcountry for over 30 years, having closed nearly 2 billion in sales during this time. Joining the Sotheby's International Realty brand in 2007, the company has taken its local market expertise and expanded into the international arena through a close partnership with the Sotheby's Auction House and a powerful referral network across affiliate offices worldwide. Their office is located at 33 Broad Street in Downtown Charleston. 843-723-7150, DanielRavenelSIR.com

ABOUT DYAL COMPASS:

Dyal Compass, LLC is a New York based real estate development company who, in collaboration with a world-class team of architects and builders, creates high-end luxury properties with a focus on LEED and Passive Home certified accreditation. Dyal Compass takes pride in its approach to developing responsible living practices with a conscience. Its goal is to design, develop and deliver properties for those clients who value green building practices with environmental awareness and conservation. DyalCompass.com